PART III.

Legislative Measures and Rules thereunder.

NOTIFICATION.

No. J. 4600—Regis. 30-14-8, dated Bangalore, the 22nd May 1916.

The following addenda to Rule 22 of the Rules under the Mysore Registration Regulation, 1903, approved by Government, are published under Section 69 of the Regulation:—

In the second paragraph of Rule 22, between "or if there are interlineations, alterations, erasures, or blanks which are not attested" and "the Registering officer will explain what is wanted" the following shall be inserted "if the date of execution is not given in the document or if it is anterior to the date of purchase of the stamp paper on which the document is written, or if the date is given according to both the British and the Indian Calendars and those dates do not tally" and the word "or" shall be omitted before "if there are interlineations, etc.," quoted above.

2. After the second paragraph the following shall be added as paragraph 3.

"If however, any of the impediments referred to above is discovered after the presentation endorsement has been made on the document, the latter may be returned for correction or amendment if the party so desires with an endorsement to that effect. Should the document be presented again, a representation endorsement shall be made."

The existing three paragraphs of the rule should be numbered as 1, 2 and 4.

No. J. 4601—Regis. 30-14-9, dated Bangalore, the 22nd May 1916.

The following rules for the maintenance of minute books by registering officers are approved by Government and published in accordance with Section 69 of the Mysore Registration Regulation, 1903, for general information. These rules will be numbered as Rules 42 A, 42 E of the Mysore Registration Rules:—

42 (A). Every registering officer shall maintain a minute book in the form appended hereto.

42 (B). (i) In this book shall be entered a brief record of each day's proceedings in respect of every document on which a presentation endorsement has been made and which is not admitted to registration on the day of presentation, such as a document presented for registration and returned for correction under Rule 22, para 3, an impounded document, a document put aside pending appearance of parties or witnesses, a document pending reference to the Registrar or a will presented after the death of the testator and pending enquiry.

(ii) This record shall also include references to the following:—

a. Documents which ought to be presented for registration in a different office but which has been accepted for registration through oversight, and have been returned for presentation in the proper office, after the presentation endorsement has been made;

b. Documents presented by a party not entitled to present the same and returned after the presentation endorsement has been made, for presentation by the proper person;

c. Documents accepted for registration but returned unregistered at the request of the party presenting them;

d. The return of a sealed cover containing a will on the ground that it is not sealed or that it has not been superscribed with the name of the testator and that of his agent (if any) and the nature of the document (Section 42 of the Regulation).

e. The proceedings of a Registrar on each day in appeals and enquiries under the Regulation.

42 (C). (i) The entry shall be made by the Registering officer who deals with the document to which the entry relates and the entries for each day shall be initialled and dated by him.

42 (D). A document accepted for registration but returned unregistered at the request of the presentant [Rule 42 B. ii (c)] shall not be entered in Book 2.]

42 (E). A registering officer may grant copies of the notes of statements recorded in the minute book to the parties to the proceedings in which such statements were made and to parties claiming title through them as persons interested in affirming or denying the truth of such statements, but save to persons so interested he is not bound to give such copies.
